1st day — 364 days follow

Hugie, Joe & Pete & I put off a fire cracker under the bay window at 12 & then had a drink to welcome the new year & then to bed. The new year doesn't look very promising.
War - no wages - & Hugie's finances precarious - but there is always hope with a new year. We slept late & had to rush to get the first floor cleaned and a roast beef dinner cooked by one.
I tried to nap later but too many children, so did a bit of mending. Hugie working at his office all day. A late cold supper & then wrote thank-yous to Miss Peter & Lilly Beall.

Friday, January 2, 1942

2nd day — 363 days follow

I got up at five to get breakfast for Hugie & Ellen who went out to the observation Post until 8. I slept till they got back. Then tried to clean the kitchen before lunch time. Fortunately, Ellen helped me, but when I never got to the refrigerator. Reading club at Martha's - we finished "Saratoga Inn". Miss Tom was there, talking over X.C.S. days - so far away now. Listened to radio - Manila has fallen because we couldn't get there in time to help her. Hugie at office. My maid to me while I washed & then I typed a letter to Fred & Mary.

Saturday, January 3, 1942

3rd day — 362 days follow

Another late arising - I will be glad when school starts. I had the washing to do & dusting downstairs while the children cleaned upstairs - nice little helpers. Mike had an early lunch as he went with Jo to back hills - one of his temporary fillings came out. After lunch was out of the way I finished the washing & then made cranberry jelly & cleaned the refrigerator while Ellen made apple sauce. I also fixed the chicken for dinner tomorrow. Ellen got supper - home co. Later Hugie & I went over to the Sheffers - Pete is on wagon!

Sunday, January 4, 1942

4th day — 361 days follow

It snowed heavily during the night — I got up in time for early church but was afraid to drive in snow. So I got breakfast ready leisurely, & stuffed chicken. Sunday School — Jean Mc G. has gone away so I have to find another teacher. Then church — few at each. Ellen had stayed home & got dinner started. Made beds in the afternoon with Ellen's help & rested a bit. Then I worked at my desk, trying to make my accounts come right. After supper I lengthened a pair of pants for Henry & pressed them. Angie working in cellar.

Monday, January 5, 1942

Up at 7:30 & got the kids off early to school. Then I did my washing in record time and we had the baked beans for lunch which Louise Martin so kindly sent over. After I had my thing in order once more I lay down to rest a bit — but soon went upstairs to wash hairbrushes — a thing I've been meaning to do for months. Then Grace came to call for an hour — I darned a napkin while she was here. Then I tried to fix an electric clock. After supper Angie had a washing I tried to write to Henry but ended up reading "Fable is my master."

Tuesday, January 6, 1942

6th day — 359 days follow

Ellen & Hugie went off to the observation post at six again & I got their breakfast before they went. Later I washed my hair & so was late getting at my cleaning & had to stop it to get lunch ready. After lunch I called up my car on the spur of the moment & had a nice talk with her. Then I finished my very thorough cleaning & put away the wash. Suddenly my leg began to ache again. I lay down but could get no relief. After supper I sprinkled the wash & then went to bed to ease with a hot water bottle but the leg still ached.

Wednesday, January 7, 1942

7th day — 358 days follow

My leg ached all night. It feels better when I'm up & about. I started my ironing when I had the shoes done. At lunch Hugie persuaded me to go to the doctor about my leg. I went to Joe Parrish. While I was waiting I read a letter from Aunt Maud which Grace sent up to the house. On it she had written "Get a chair for Mike's desk. Nucle F. will pay for it." so as soon as I got out of the office with some pills I went to R. each bills & got a chair! Hugie took me home to my ironing. Ellen forgot to come home, so I ironed till suppertime & she finished it afterward. I got with hot water bottles.

Thursday, January 8, 1942

8th day — 357 days follow

The pills haven't helped my leg yet — but I managed to do a good job cleaning the main floor in spite of it. When I went to Baby's & the Reading club I took my hot water bottle with me, much to the amusement of everyone & the comfort of myself. We started a new book "Drink to your day" by Katherine Wolfe was there but not Martha. After supper one of Hughie's aquats came in — Bill Francis — he wanted to take us out but Hughie didn't want to go so gave him a drink. I bought some red white & blue bells for supper.

9th day — 356 days follow

My leg still hurts but not so much. I scrubbed the stove & the refrigerator before I had to go to lunch and did the floor after. Everything was cleaned up again, and waxed it. Then I went down in the play room & painted Henry's bed red, only it looks orange. And my leg stopped hurting suddenly as it began. After supper Hagie & I decided to go to the movies to see William Powell & Myrna Loy in a Thin Man picture. Went to Maryland for a drink afterward & hurried home to listen to Joe Louis K.O. Gully Beer.

Saturday, January 10, 1942

10th day — 355 days follow

The kids got to work up-stairs while I worked in the laundry at the washing. After lunch Hugie carried Humph's bed upstairs & it looked so awful I made Henry go down town & buy me some more paint and later I painted it a much nicer red — these are the iron beds Hugie had at college. After supper we were expecting the Seigs but we watched the Shoppers & much later the Seigs. Everyone in a good mood & we had a very nice time till one when they left. I started another needlepoint

Sunday, January 11, 1942

11th day — 354 days follow

Went to church at 8. got breakfast & hurried back to S.S. still no Jean & I took her class again. Then Henry & I came home & he helped me do the dishes & get dinner ready. After I had all the dinner dishes done I felt tired & lay down for a while. But I had to paint Hub's bed & of course upset the paint! Finally everything cleaned up & finished! Mike moved the bed over & I had to work some more! Then I made the beds! What a day! Read after supper till it was late enough to go to bed.

Monday, January 12, 1942

12th day — 353 days follow

Went to the kitchen at 7:30 & got breakfast & then went back to bed until after 9.
Did my washing & put some soap on the stove to boil. Of course it boils all over the stove & floor & I was busy mopping it up when Grace came in!!!
She lectured me on taking care of myself. Managed to put a fairly decent lunch on table. Finished my washing & everything at 13:30 & then stretched out onavenport with Post & didn't budge till time to warm up some supper. Let the kids do the dish& went with Hugie to see Nelson Eddy in choir. Solin - born

Tuesday, January 13, 1942

13th day — 352 days follow

I got up as usual today & took my time about cleaning the second floor.
Lunch easy, then I dusted the living room, finished upstairs & cleaned myself up a bit before Ma & she got here. I had a great pile of mending
to do, but of course didn't finish it. We had tea and it was a pleasure to have her here. She is always so comfortable. Supper was late as usual & then Hugie went to his office.
I undressed till the boys went to bed & then I read in bed.

Wednesday, January 14, 1942

14th day — 351 days follow

I forgot last night about springing the ironing so I had to do it this morning. So I did a few shores up stairs until time to get lunch. The boys room looks so nice
with the two red beds.
I touched them up a bit where they got knocked being put together. After lunch I ironed until Ellen came home from school & relieved me.
Hugie at a club dinner
so we had cereal supper.
It was tonight I went to bed to read - last night Hugie was fixing beds etc & Bill Sieg came in for one of his "minutes"

Thursday, January 15, 1942

15th day — 350 days follow

Thought I had an early start for cleaning the main floor but lunch time came before I was finished. Then the rush to get to Reading Club at Cat Loris. Such a hubbub was there! Grace was there & seemed to start round of arguments - about boys Council, about the schools, about the war. I didn't enter in to it - it is too lega-less to try to be heard in that melée. The Siegs gave us some oysters which Hugie opened for supper - good.
Later I had no pep left to do any thing but read
"Life" - & listen to Hugie-bed Early - O.

Friday, January 16, 1942

16th day — 349 days follow

Cleaned up the kitchen a bit & then scrubbed the stairs & hall floor. It was some job as they were black. Catherine Sieg dropped in for a moment while I was cooking lunch — most distracting time to call. In the afternoon I waxed & polished the floors & they looked so beautiful, but at four when the kids came home they got marks on them again — what is the use? In the mean time I boiled the silver in disinfectant to clean it before putting anti-tarnish stuff on. I wonder how it will work. Everyone out except Henry & me — he read to me.

Saturday, January 17, 1942

17th day — 348 days follow

The kids got to work at their jobs & I went down to the laundry to wash. After lunch was all cleaned up I figured out my accounts & then the boys went downtown with me in the nice sunshine. We paid my bills all over town & did extensive shopping in the 5 & 10. Then Henry treated me to a soda. We bought too many things at the A.P. & had big bundles to carry home. Hugué went to club after supper. I cleaned up my desk & later made dress for tomorrow.

Sunday, January 18, 1942

18th day — 347 days follow

Got up at 8 and hurried to be ready for S.S. at 9:45. Dr. K-B. Here & Jean there - everything much better. Went home between church & S.S. to put the dinner in the oven, with Henry there to watch it. My good sermon "What have you got in your hand?" While we were eating dinner Helen Schwartz brought little Billy over to see us - darling baby! Ellen & Hugie took us for a walk - Henry to a scout flag raising. Made the beds, put a wash, mended and finally had time to lay out the squares for an afghan for our hospital unit by Reading.

Monday, January 19, 1942

19th day — 346 days follow

Got at my washing promptly but could not finish it before lunch. And after lunch Mrs. Boney wanted me to see some samples for altar hangings so I rode down with Hugie & walked home in the nice sunny air. Then I finished my clothes & had time to write in my diary a bit before Siegie came to help me put the afghan together. We had tea but kept right on working until Hugie came home & gave us a corsetail. She stayed till after six but I had fortunately started supper. Hugie went to his office Ellen & I listened to radio & crocheting.

Tuesday, January 20, 1942

20th day — 345 days follow

Gave the bedrooms a good cleaning but as usual had to interrupt the work to get lunch ready. Mon. & Tues. I have the same easy lunches every week. These are my hardest days. At three o'clock, having finished upstairs I started to polish the silver which could not be boiled and put the stuff on to keep them from tarnishing. Then it was time to get supper. Henry had his patrol meeting here - such a noise in the playroom. Ellen & I sewed in the living room until time to make cocoa for the boys. They spilled it all over everything.

Wednesday, January 21, 1942

21st day — 344 days follow

Even though my ironing was all ready for me I puttered around upstairs until time to get lunch. And I had to make apple sauce so it was nearly three before I started to iron. At four Martha came. When Ellen came to take over the ironing Martha & I had tea upstairs. She pinned up a dress for me to fix to wear tomorrow night. When she left I finished ironing, ate cereal (Hugie out) The kids helped me take down the Christmas tree - back to see it go. Then I tried to fix the dress but I was tired & don't like the material anyway.

Thursday, January 22, 1942

22nd day — 343 days follow

Grand time cleaning up the pine needles & moving the furniture in the living room all around. Had to finish it after lunch & then get ready for Siegie to take me to Winnipeg to the Reading Club. Looked after with me. Made bet of it with Deborah about church supper or not - And later on when I met her at Fida Adams party she paid me! I also won a prize at the party - a fine waste basket. It was a lovely party - delicious supper, in her beautiful rooms. Aven tables - Fascinating tally made with little shells. Very good time.

Friday, January 23, 1942

23rd day — 342 days follow

Was leisurely about my breakfast - Done to be. Then took my time straightening upstairs but finally got down to scrub the kitchen. Made corn muffins for lunch - never fail. Cleaned the refrigerator & was putting the wax on the floor when Grace arrived. We saw the davenport in its nice new place and I finished putting the afghan together & showed her how to crochet the edge which she kindly offered to do. Then lunch time dropped in for a little visit. After supper Siegie had a meeting - I read "Tife" and filed up church flower chart.

Saturday, January 24, 1942

24th day — 341 days follow

Henry off to gather newspapers for the Scouts, Ellen & Mike cleaned upstairs while I did the washing. Fried pancakes again for lunch. I'm getting better at it. In the afternoon the kids all went to the movies. I rested a bit when my kitchen chores were done, then brought in the washing which I had hung out. Hugo came home to trim the trees out front — it is a day like Spring. I cut the material to make bedspread out of Cousin Nan's quilts. After supper Hugo & I went to the movies on kids recommendation. 'Good Thugs' is 'They died with their boots on' — good.

Sunday, January 25, 1942

25th day — 340 days follow

Up at 7:30 trying to decide whether to go to church at 8 or 11. I went at 8. Back at S.S. at 9:45. I was the only teacher there but fortunately Dr. K. B. was there. Then I cooked children's dinner while the rest of the family went to church. In the afternoon Mike went out, Henry & Hugo took dogs for walk & Ellen sat with me while I hemmed yards of ruffle for bedspreads. Cooked quite a supper for Hugo & Jimmy. I don't mind cooking Sunday nights now & I used to hate it. Getting used to it, I guess. I sewed until our early bed time.

Monday, January 26, 1942

26th day — 339 days follow

Did the washing in good time and had lunch ready at twelve. But I was weary in the afternoon by the time I had the kitchen cleaned up and lay down to rest for half an hour-beautiful sleep. Then I got to work again on the beds pads. I had one finished by supper time & it looks very beautiful. Cooked hot dogs & picked beans together for supper very good. Hugie went to his office, poor fellow, and I finished the second bed spread while Ellen told me about "Two Vads" which she is reading.

Tuesday, January 27, 1942

27th day — 338 days follow

While I was cooking breakfast in my nightie, I walked Bill Sieg with money for Hugie! Then in a few minutes Nurse lost his hot dog treat on the breakfast table! It seemed quite a while before things quieted down & Nurse & I were left alone. He lay on his bed while I did the cleaning up of the table. I had intended going to a Republican card party but as Nurse still felt sick I stayed home with him & made a dress for myself out of left overs. We left him with Henry while Hugie, Ellen & I went to Parish supper & meeting. I was elected superintendent of S.S.!!!

Put the wash away & did not go to church. I would allude to it to try the new hymn. It is a dream! Then I had to get home. But in the afternoon I worked on the floor with it, using the attachments on the curtains and having a beautiful time. Got a pile of about a mile high but it weighed only 100 lbs. Then I was tired & lay on down for a while & then to cook supper. After supper I played changes on the harmonica & made quads and did a little dancing.

But in the afternoon I worked until four with it, using the attachments on the curtains and having a beautiful time. Got a pile of dust a mile high, but it weighed only 7 ounces. Then I was tired & lay on seven feet until time to cook supper. After supper I ground oranges for marmalade & made fudge. and did a little mending.

46th day — 319 days follow

Such a family! Ellen's cold has gotten worse so now she has a fever & I kept her in bed. Bugie also in bed as something he ate yesterday made him awfully sick in the night. The boys & I went to S.S. & to church at 11. Bugie got up for dinner looking pale. Later I made the beds I was about to sit with Ellen when the Shoppers came in with their new streamlined bag. Jo & I both sat with Ellen a little while and I stayed with her until time for her to sleep & then joined Bugie still weakish, in the living room.

Monday, February 16, 1942

47th day — 318 days follow

Got Valentine candy from Bo. Ellen still in bed but I fixed her up with a puzzle while I went to the laundry to wash. In the afternoon I joined her and got a lot of my needlework seat done. She has an awful cold now and as always is unable to blow her nose & clear her throat properly — just doesn't seem to know how. Such a rush I had to get ready for my first A.C. meeting at seven and an awful rainy night. I wondered whether it is worth all the rush & struggle. But I enjoy the <sup>pleasure</sup>

Tuesday, February 17, 1942

48th day — 317 days follow

Ellen seems better so I let her get up for lunch as she gets so tired of bed. I cleaned upstairs and actually finished before lunch (didn't use attachment.) Ellen & I sat in library and sewed in afternoon, I making a snow suit for Red Cross & Ellen, a doll coat. Then I missed to go with Hugie to the Kiwanis Ladies Night dinner at the Penn Hotel. The best part was comparing notes with Mrs. Emerick on the snow suit! They had a square dance which Hugie hated so we came home early.

5 Ash-Wednesday, February 18, 1942

49th day — 316 days follow

Sprinkled my ironing & then sat with Ellen who had fasted in bed & did a little mending. In the afternoon I took my ironing to the living room & Ellen was there sewing & Martha came in with her knitting. We had a very pleasant time and a tea party. Henry is having a time deciding what to give up for Lent. I have given up Martinis and I bet I got more done of an evening. This evening I went to church with Hugie & Mike and Dr. R. B. with a bad cold, preached a good sermon.

Thursday, February 19, 1942

50th day — 315 days follow

got the new Hoover busy on the first floor. Ellen still taking it easy at home as her cough lingers on. But I left her all alone at two to go to Mary Craig to the Reading Club. It was bitter cold walking & I longed for Siegie in Florida! She always gave me a lift. When I got home the boys were dressing to go to the Father's son banquet with Hugie. Poor Ellen ate alone as I was too full. I got out the typewriter & wrote to Beulah, Adelaide Thomas and Catherine Sieg. It took me all evening from Hugie listening to the clickety

Friday, February 20, 1942

51st day — 314 days follow

Ellen was so late with her breakfast I had a hard time getting started on the kitchen and consequently worked in it until mid afternoon. Then Ellen & I made sachets — I, to give to Martha on her birthday. They made me sneeze or run I actually catching a cold! After supper I took Hugie & then Martha & Mrs. Lane to church. Mr. Frizell of State College — preached a good sermon on Prayer. Later I ordered church candles & hand water soap & wrote to a missionary.

Saturday, February 21, 1942

52nd day — 313 days follow

The washing to do & I feel like the dickens. I have caught Ellen's cold. Had to help Henry get ready to go on an over night camp with the Scouts — so much he had to have. Ellen & Niles sewed in her room and I lay down on davenport to rest when I'd finished my work. After I'd slept a while Winifred came in & I was a sight & felt like one which is unusual. After supper Huguie & I sat around & read and went to bed early — it is 10° out. Doors colder where Henry is.

Burned myself & broke a plate today Sunday, February 22, 1942 100°

53rd day — 312 days follow

Niles & I went to S.S. I feel better. Came home to find Huguie had turned off sewer pump by mistake & I was scolding him on way to church when he snore at me so terribly I got out & walked. I walked home, too, after a not too-good sermon. Dinner was very quiet with neither Huguie nor I saying much. Later on, after Ellen & I had beds made, he apologized & the atmosphere cleared a bit. Then we went to Martha's birthday supper — very good. Cat & Mrs. Fox & Deborah were there, too. My cold is very funny.

Monday, February 23, 1942

54th day — 311 days follow

I didn't let Ellen go back to school until after lunch, but I didn't see her much during the a. m. as I was washing. In the afternoon — the house to myself once more — I sewed up the second snow suit. My cold is much better. I tried to start supper early but it was late when we finished & I had to rush off again to my first aid class & leave the dishes for the kids to do. Got home in time to listen to the President's speech with Hugie.

Tuesday, February 24, 1942

55th day — 310 days follow

Cleaned up taxi. I called up to find why the garbage hadn't been taken & Mrs. Solt said it was because Mr. Solt had been buried that day! Was I embarrassed, especially when she burst into tears! I went down town, taking my Red Cross snow suits to Mrs. Emende, but she wasn't home. Walked down with Merry Morris who is sweet, & after supper Mrs. Witten dropped in, with a plant for me. She is sweet too. Later Hugie read to me.

Wednesday, February 25, 1942

56th day — 309 days follow

I sprinkled my ironing and made a stew
for lunch. Got a letter from Beanie saying she has to have an operation, poor dear. But will come here to recuperate, that will be nice. I ironed all afternoon as Ellen has so much work to make up at school. Then I cooked a steak for supper in honor of Bill Sieg.
He didn't come until six-thirty but supper wasn't ready until then anyway. We just sat & talked a bit & listened to the war news. Until 12.

Thursday, February 26, 1942

57th day — 308 days follow

Cleaned the first floor got lunch. Ellen at Haug's to lunch as usual on Thursdays. Was ready to go to Reading club at Deborah's when Peggy came for me. There were my fees there - Peggy brought books of wall paper & we helped her select some.
But we did read a bit in "A Toast to Tomorrow".
by the same author as "Dink to Yesterday". Hugie at the club to supper. Kids ate cereal and I wrote to Beanie and wrote in this poor neglected diary. Read a bit until Hugie came home & told me of his travel.
He saw Aunt Gertrude.

Friday, February 27, 1942

58th day — 307 days follow

Planned to just scrub & wax the bathrooms but as I came down the steps they were so dirty I did them, too. And I cleaned the laundry - I worked until four o'clock & then made myself a cup of tea.
Hugie came home during the morning to say that Mary had phoned from N.Y. to say that we ought to get Heinie to come here for her operation. Hugie phoned Heinie but she had her mind all set. After supper Ellen & I had a time deciding who would go to church or stay home with Mike who is too tired to go. I stayed at home & read Reader Digest.
Mary & Fred called up again about Heinie.

Saturday, February 28, 1942

59th day — 306 days follow

Wash day again. And again I gave Ellen the dishes for just half cleaning the play room. If I could only teach her to be thorough & tidy. After lunch I had to make apple sauce & clean the kitchen a bit & the next thing I knew it was four & I was tired. So I took a nap. Was awakened by telephone, N. Y. Trying to get Hugie & could hardly wait till he got home.
It was Heinie saying she will be operated in N. Y. on Mon. They talked long & I was glad as I was having trouble getting supper ready. Pete came in for a while - he is sick

60th day — 305 days follow

At S.S. I told them about the hobby show we will have to make money for suite boxes. At church $110 Dr. K. B. preached on sex! Quite a surprising & yet rational sermon. My poor chicken was very well cooked by the time we got home. Ellen helped me with the beds after dinner & then all three kids went for a walk with Hagie & the dog and I stitched up another snow suit for the Red Cross. A nice fire in the fire place, except they make you lazy. I read the papers & wrote a letter to Heinie.

Wash day and a dozen chores besides. After lunch I went downtown & bought myself two dresses at the $10- as thrilling as if they were from Fifth Avenue. I shall wear them more any way. Also stopped to see Betty Malin about the hobby show. Got a ride down & back, thankfully. After supper Hagie took me to my first aid lesson. Artificial respiration - I practiced on Mary Childs so Jo wasn't there! Met Hagie afterward at his visiting meeting. We went to bed early. O. snowing & blowing outside.

62nd day — 303 days follow

Deep snow this morning. Hugie had a time getting his car out & I had a time getting my work done because I couldn't stay away from the windows. Only Henry & Mike came to lunch, but it was after three before I finished my work. Then Grace came with her knitting to hear all about Heinie — & to tell me about her maid troubles which she certainly is having. After supper Hugie & I went to see Ginger Rogers in "Ropin' Hart" — crazy, but good. Then I wrote another letter to Heinie.

Spent the morning fixed a time getting the car out & I had a little getting my work done. Because I can't stay away from the radio down! Only Henry & Mike came to lunch, but it was after this before I finished my work. When I was alone with the writing I was all about Mike & the radio about the mail trouble while he was leaving. After supper
I got out the car again and "Pop's Hat" & I got good. I had the radio about Mike

Heinie came downstairs to break fast which we had in the kitchen after everyone had gone. Then I had to clean the kitchen first because of our breakfast, however. After lunch after I had mopped the floor, I cut out pajamas to give the boys for Easter - don't know when I'll get them sewed up. It is a beautiful spring day & Heinie is sitting out in the sun. After supper we all went to church & left poor Heinie all alone.

87th day — 278 days follow

Everybody doing their jobs - I the washing & Heinie writing her letters for all her cards & presents. After lunch I polished silver until time to go down to help Nina fix the palls in church. Ellen went, too, but the other girls who were to help didn't turn up. I tacked the palls on boards I found around the new school building. Quite effective. Somewhat supper. Heinie went to bed before the Scips came over - they just got back from Florida & it was nice to see them <sup>again</sup>.

There is snow about a foot deep + more coming down! We got to Sunday school all right but Dr. Koepf-Baker didn't - he just made it in time for church. Heinie + Henry had dinner in fine shape by the time we finally got home. It is still snowing hard. Ellen + I made beds after dinner + then I polished more silver. Heinie + I got a nice supper together. Then I had to make a nightie pattern for Ellen - I was just going to bed - Heinie had gone when the Shoppers came in - I could hardly keep my eyes open.

Up at 7 to pack lunches for the kids. And then the washing with trips up stairs to dust + put the house in order. Heinie did the dishes + got the salad ready + I made spoon head and we were nearly ready when Martha + her guests, Misses Toris + Haudy arrived at one. I had Grace, too, and she seemed to enjoy being here + helped me with the dishes at 4 after the guests had left. I finished the washing after she left! And after supper I had to go to take my first bird test. It did not seem hard but I don't know how it came out.

girl, Sydney, 2½ years to have her portrait done.
I was left alone with her - she is most pre-co-cious & we had a high time, but I managed to get a likeness before lunch. Soup & strawberry shortcake. Then I went to the school to register for sugar rationing - a book of stamps for each member of the family.
Finished the portrait.
After supper I took Ellen to State College to see Walt Disney's "Fantasia" which was truly beautiful & fascinating.

I spent hours calling up girls to dine with me to Twin mount tomorrow - each had so much to say. I visited and later in afternoon cleaned my desk drawers.

At supper time Hugie called up twice saying he'd be home in 10 minutes - he came at 7:45. I was kind of mad - trying to keep meat cakes & fried onions hot. Fred Reynolds came to see us - he is spending two weeks with Aunt Fred to rest his nerves!

I have finally made up my mind to keep up this diary - maybe it is a waste of time but the habit of many years is hard to break. Today I cleaned up tables until three when I got to work on the living room bookcase - but looked into so many books that it was supper time when I finished. Hugie at a police meeting - I depressed myself by going over my accounts - I can't save money - was just about to read the prayers at S.S. when Koep, Baker walked in - was I glad to see him! I went home to put my chicken in oven & then back to church - good but long sermon on 'the Holy Ghost'.

After all my chores were done in the afternoon Fred came in, but fortunately he went out in the yard with Hugie & I could take a nap. Fred stayed to supper - black bean soup - the Sheffers came in afterward & Fred seemed to have a good time.

Another cold dreary day. Washing to be done. At noon Ellen was all excited by a letter from Heinie inviting her to go to Florida with her to see the Wynns next month. After lunch I drove to Lock Haven with Hugie who wanted to get some of his affairs straightened out, but he was not very successful. Did some weeding when I got home. After supper I mended by machine polished up the belt. Bequa wants me to send him - read.

Siegie came to cut my hair & I was! At six thirty Grace, Uncle Fred & Fred arrived for dinner. Mike the only one of the children here. A good beef roast & asparagus. Uncle F. seemed to enjoy it until dessert, when he got very white & red & went into living room to sit down. Grace called Dr. Gruman. Uncle F. just sat & at nine, lying onavenport he died! A wonderful way to go. But hard on Grace & us.

during this. Grace, Paul, Fred & Ted arrived for dinner. Bill the only one of the children has a good Katterine. I prepared lunch & secured to make it until about 4:30.
The fat was white & in the
